Eric Zorc, Esq. is an Of Counsel attorney at For Purpose Law Group. With a diverse background in tax law and legal consulting, Mr. Zorc has built a reputation for his expertise in assisting individuals and organizations through complex IRS and state audits, securing favorable installment payment plans, offers in compromise, and penalty eliminations for his clients. His extensive experience also includes providing tax planning advice to individuals, small business owners, and nonprofit organizations, as well as drafting a wide range of legal documents, from corporate bylaws to estate planning documents.

Mr. Zorc's international experience is highlighted by his tenure as a Partner at ICR, Ltd. in Bangkok, Thailand. During his time there, he drafted legal memoranda for multinational companies across various industries, addressing issues related to tax, insurance, corporate governance, labor and employment, and immigration. He regularly met with clients to navigate the complexities of Thai law and managed a team of attorneys and paralegals, ensuring high-quality legal support and guidance.

Prior to his international work, Eric honed his tax expertise at Deloitte, LLP in San Francisco, CA. As a Tax Consultant, he researched and drafted memoranda on multi-state tax issues, prepared voluntary disclosure agreements, and developed models to identify significant tax savings for large corporate clients. His ability to create comprehensive tax strategies and communicate complex tax laws effectively made him a valuable asset to the firm.

Mr. Zorc began his professional tax journey at PricewaterhouseCoopers, LLP in San Jose, CA. At PWC, he managed projects related to employment tax issues for major corporations, provided in-depth technical analysis, and successfully removed penalties from state assessments. His strong research skills and persuasive communication helped secure favorable outcomes for his clients, establishing him as a trusted advisor in the field of tax law. At For Purpose Law Group, Mr. Zorc continues to leverage his extensive experience to support and guide the firm's clients proactively and when faced with investigations and audits.
